Do you want to help make OMS a better place? Participate in fundraisers, community service, dances and other school events? If so, you might consider running for the OMS Student Council. Ask your homeroom teacher for a brochure and an application to run for representative or office.

If you are in 6th grade, you may run for Homeroom Rep only

If you are in 7th, you may run for HR rep, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer.

If you are in 8th, you may run for any office including President.

The application is due September 12 and the informational meeting is September 13. All other information regarding speeches, campaigning and the election can be found in the brochure or by asking the advisors; Mr. Klinger & Ms. Nolfe. Please consider participating in this exciting opportunity!
