Guidance

The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board is proud to announce its 2018-2019 Alcohol Awareness Poster Contest. All entries must be made by November 16th. Please stop by the guidance office for all guidelines and entry form.

On Friday October 5, a representative from the Lehigh Career and Technical Institute will be here to present to our 8th grade students. The presentations will occur in the auditorium during periods 1, 2, and 3. The schedule is as follows:

Period 1- Team Endeavor students will report to the auditorium immediately following the morning announcements, escorted by teachers

Period 2- Team Apollo students should report to the auditorium immediately after 1st period, escorted by teachers

Period 3- Team Discovery students will report to the auditorium immediately following 2nd period, escorted by teachers

Art Department

Are you interested in taking your ART to a whole new level after school? The Baum School of Art has Teen-age ART Scholarship classes for 8th graders. OMS has the opportunity to nominate 4 students. Candidates are those that possess outstanding ability, commitment, and interest in the visual arts and represent Orefield Middle School with pride. If interested please go to art room 277 for more info and an application. Deadline to submit your application is Friday, October 12th. Thank you!
